

Joseph D. Palombit

Associate, New Brunswick

Experience

Joseph D. Palombit is an associate in the Transactional Group at the firm, focusing his practice in Property Tax Appeal Litigation, Business Transactions and Litigation and Corporate Law & Transactions.

Prior to joining the firm, Joseph served as the first Judicial Law Clerk to the Hon. John D. O'Dwyer, J.S.C. in the Superior Court of New Jersey's Civil Division, gaining significant, hands-on experience with a wide-range of matters, ranging from auto liability cases to cases dealing with the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination. Through that position, Joseph gained invaluable experience conducting research and drafting opinions on complex issues of law.

Joseph obtained his undergraduate degree at Rutgers Business School in New Brunswick in 2011 and pursued his Juris Doctor at Rutgers Law School in Newark. While at Rutgers Law, Joseph focused his studies in business law, receiving a Certificate in Business & Corporate Law. Additionally, Joseph worked in the Rutgers' Intellectual Property Law Clinic, where he assisted individuals and businesses in the registration of trademarks and copyrights.
